

Croeso!

(Welsh for Welcome!) If you have been getting our prayer letters for very long, you may notice an immediate change in our letterhead. Yes, it is still the McPeters' family, and yes, we are still heading to Wales! (Whew!) We have been needing to change our prayer letter design for some time for two purposes: We realized this summer after our latest survey trip that God was leading our family to a more specific ministry role - one of church planting. We are so excited about this ministry that we want to reflect this emphasis throughout our entire ministry. In addition, our other design did not give us the needed room to pack in all of the information, blessings, praises, and prayer updates we would have like. Voila ~ the new letterhead! Now we have more room to keep you informed. We do have a lot to pack into this prayer letter; we hope you enjoy.

The past few months have been a taste of full-time deputation, and our family has been enjoying it! We shared in two mission conferences and had several meetings in Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, and here in South Carolina. In addition to the excitement of a full schedule, God has also used this time to teach our family some valuable lessons on faith, prayer, and working together as a team. Our girls have enjoyed taking the responsibility for our display table. Michelle and I have had fun also watching them interact with folks who ask them questions regarding their future ministry. Krystal is quick to explain that she is looking forward to being a witness to the new friends she will make at her Welsh school. Cora, our faithful prayer warrior, already takes a very active role in praying that God starts today in preparing the hearts of the Welsh to receive the Gospel. (Adelyn doesn't really say much except "Pick me, up please.") The closer we get to full-time deputation, the more excited our family is getting for the chance to work and grow together on an hour by hour basis. Thank you Lord, for your blessings on me.

Project 1.11 Goals

Thank you so very much for your continued prayer towards our goals for January of 2011. Here is how God is answering!

PRAYER PARTNERS:

Currently, we have 103 Daily Prayer Team Partners! What a blessing. Thank you to all who are daily lifting both our family and the Welsh people up in prayer.

FULL TIME DEPUTATION:

ANSWERED!

As many of you know, our family will officially begin fulltime deputation in January. God is good! We are looking forward to the ability to stay focused on our goal - reaching the Welsh

TEAM MEMBERS:

We've had the joy and privilege to meet several folks in the last 3 months who have a heart for full-time ministry. (You know who you are and you know we're praying you towards Wales!)

Prayer Changes Things

Praise

We had a new church partner financially with us this month. We also had a current supporting church raise our support in preparation for full-time deputation. What an unexpected blessing!

Prayer

A Mueller...

We watched the Lord this month provide a very specific need for our family. Our laptop came apart the night before one of our meetings. Unaware of that need, that church, the following morning, took up a love offering that covered the purchase of a new laptop the very next day.

Moment!

* Please continue to pray for opportunities to share our ministry. * Please pray with us as we continue to work on the logistics of our move in January. * Please pray for our girls as they adjust to the reality of moving. * Thank you!
