

Reorganize. Recharge. Refuel.

“...so that I might finish my course with joy...” Acts 20:24

I am writing this prayer letter from our kitchen table in our “blue home” (as Adelyn calls it) here in Indiana. This is our first week back home since leaving for meetings at the end of January. In the last few days our children have reconnected with forgotten toys, Michelle has enjoyed time spent in the kitchen teaching Kryz some of her favorite dishes, and I have been feverishly getting our lives and paperwork reorganized.

I must admit however, that coming back home has been quite an adjustment for our family. For the last three months we have been on the go non-stop. Our schedule took us from New York to Georgia and all of the states in between. When we weren't in meetings, our kids were on the road, often with a math or science book in hand. Truth is, we had become quite accustomed to our hectic schedule. Now we are back in Indiana and finding that we all are itching to get that camper on the road again for round two!

Twittering from the road... some of our favorite travel highlights

A truly wonderful evening going door-to-door with my daughter! Now that is bonding time with an eternal impact! (5/6/11)

On our way to have dinner w/Dewain & Tavia McClain in GA 2nite! (Former host family @ our first miss. conf!!) (4/23/11)

Survived a mis-turn to Baltimore's Inner Harbor downtown...in an RV! Never want to do that again! Bound for FCW Campmtg in NC! (4/18/11)

Off to Woodberry Bible Baptist Church in the morning. First met this pastor last year @ Burger King. God works in mysterious ways! (4/9/11)

We're still trying to get paint out of our hair! What a great time we had this wknd tackling a paint project with Pastor Dierking. (3/31/11)

Lk'g forward to spending time with one of our strongest prayer warriors. Nothing is more exciting than a teen on fire for the Lord! (3/24/11)

So enjoy watching Kryz check her email & get excited to read the prayer letters of other missionaries she has met on deputation. (3/21/11)

March is proving to be an exciting month as we have watched 3 souls so far give their heart & lives to full-time missions/ministry. PTL! (3/16/11)

The last few months have been such a blessing to each of us personally. There were so many teachable moments that God used to remind us of His will in our day-to-day travels. (And yes, some teachable moments were easier than others!)

We did enjoy a “McPeters Moment” just this past week, as Kryz and Cora sang a special for the last mission conference service at Morristown Baptist Tabernacle. This was a first-time for them singing in public. They sang a special with Michelle and this Daddy watched with pride! What a blessing to hear them sing the words, “All I ever want to be, is what you want of me, Lord. I give my life to You...”

Thank you so very much for your prayers both for our meetings and our traveling safety. Our support level has grown to 22%, as 3 churches have partnered with us. Praise the Lord! Please continue to pray for open doors in churches, where we can share our burden and the need to reach the Welsh with the Gospel. - Jonathan McPeters

REQUESTING YOUR PRAYERS

- For Michelle's foot as she continues to experience chronic pain. The problem has now been diagnosed, and she has begun an in-home therapy treatment.
- For Pastor Daryl Butts and his family, as they continue to rebuild, after losing their home to the tornadoes in Alabama.
- For continued opportunities to share our ministry, and for churches who are excited to partner with us in reaching the Welsh for Christ.
